

BLURRING THE LINES - CONFERENCE
27TH AND 28TH NOVEMBER 2020

The eBook Blurring the Lines - Conference Proceedings 2019 is the result of the first conference held in Palazzo Mora and hosted by the ECC last November. The eBook is available for free here!

A dialogue between graduates, professors, collectors, professional photographers and passionate aimed to highlight and address reflections and questions on the role of photography and education.

The project is created in cooperation with Blurring the Lines, @blurring_the_lines_edu, a network founded by Steve Bisson and Klaus Fruchtnins in 2016 with the aim to promote student's thesis research work, to get international recognition and contribute to an academic dialogue.

The second edition of the conference is planned on November 27th and 28th and will be available in live streaming on our youtube channel European Cultural Centre. Follow us on our channels!
